

NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Female-Led Short Film Features Legendary Lainie Kazan

TORONTO, Ontario - September 20, 2023 - Former Torontonian and Executive Producer of Greek Philosophia and Chickens is excited to announce that this short film has been selected and nominated by the Greek International Film Festival Tour of Canada and will be screened at Innis Town Hall Cinema, 2 Sussex Avenue, Toronto on Monday, October 2nd 2023 at 6:45pm. The film features the great Lainie Kazan from My Big Fat Greek Wedding #3 now in theaters.

“Greek Philosophia and Chickens was directed by a woman, executive produced by a woman, stars female actors and challenges some long-held notions about the value of women as they age,” says Germaine Gaudet, Executive Producer. “It feels great to be bringing it back to my former hometown.”

Part drama, part comedy with a hint of romance, Greek Philosophia and Chickens follows a sixty-something best-selling romance author who, feeling invisible as an older woman, hires an assassin to take her out. She begins to question her decision to end it all when she meets Katina, a Greek woman in her late seventies who's full of life and is dating a man ten years younger than her. Will Katina and her handsome son change the author's mind before it's too late?

Germaine Gaudet, Brian D. Cohen, Lukas Hassel and Lainie Kazan star in this film and they bring a fun reality to the story of female ageing in our society.

This short film will be screened along with feature films Dignity and I Love Greece. Purchase tickets here:

<https://giffit.ca/product/dignity-i-love-greece-toronto/>

You can view the trailer at:

<https://vimeo.com/807100387>

You can learn more about our film, cast and crew at:

<https://www.facebook.com/GreekPhilosophiaandChickensMovie>

Media contact:

Germaine Gaudet

Executive Producer

415-516-2929

germainegaudet@gmail.com